Musica Viva has two major objectives; to be synonymous with the highest quality live ensemble music performances in Australia and to be at the forefront of digital delivery of music education and ensemble music experiences. 2013 saw the organisation take great leaps towards both objectives.

Performances reflected the very best of quality, diversity, challenge and joy, whether in the finest concert halls across the land, or in two-room schools in remote Australia. There were seven new works commissioned and performed, with many more in development for future years. Emerging artists were mentored and given performance and learning opportunities that have greatly enhanced their careers. Over 272,000 children enjoyed an enriched education by participating in Musica Viva In Schools. From all perspectives, Musica Viva has made a valuable and lasting contribution to the Australian cultural landscape, both present and future.

Artistic Director, Carl Vine, has provided the core of this vibrancy. The variety of ensembles featured in the International Concert Series is extraordinary, assisted further by the generous support of the Amadeus Society whose members enable Musica Viva to engage those outstanding international artists otherwise unattainable for our programs. Many of these artists were able to present masterclasses for our most talented young performers, leaving a legacy from their tours that will last long after the applause has finished.

In Education, we were very fortunate in 2013 to secure a new Director of Education, Kimbali Harding. She has done an excellent job in building our education operations, commencing with the launch of Musicassentials. This exciting new format has been developed over several years and will provide a great platform for our growth in the future. New programs and ensembles have been introduced, most notable being Dätiwuy Dreaming, developed in partnership with NAISDA.

Dance, celebrating the songs, dances and story-telling of Elcho Island in a dynamic new education program for schools. Youth in our juvenile justice system were also assisted by Musica Viva in a highly successful program conducted at Frank Baxter Centre, made possible by individual gifts made to Musica Viva.

In total we delivered outstanding music to a combined audience of over 348,000 featuring 391 musicians across the country.

We are delighted to announce that the final operational result for 2013 shows a $218,966 positive result, consistent with our not-for-profit status this positive outcome is channelled back into the organisation to secure the artistic vibrancy of future years.

To achieve these outcomes, the Board and management of Musica Viva secured a range of much appreciated assistance: commencing with our Tripartite support from the federal government through the Australia Council and the NSW State Government, corporate sector supporters such as Rio Tinto, Dixon Advisory, and ING Direct; support from family foundations such as Berg, Farrell, Katz, Morawetz, Newman, Thyne Reid, Tim Fairfax and Vincent Fairfax, and the host of fantastic donors to our wide variety of programs.

We pay tribute to the retiring Directors in 2013: Graham Lovelock (WA) and Lyn Hamill (QLD). Combined with the tireless efforts of our musicians, staff and volunteers across the country, Musica Viva has been able to achieve extraordinary results.

Musica Viva’s flagship product, the International Concert Season, charted some extraordinary territory in 2013, starting with the rare combination of two virtuoso guitarists (Pavel Steidl and Karen Schaupp) and ending with stellar performances by the Academy of Ancient Music alongside brilliant Australian soprano, Sara Macliver. Tens of thousands of people in our national concert audience witnessed the last concert tour in history of the legendary Tokyo String Quartet, and the first time in history that Canadian super-pianist Angela Hewitt has tackled Bach’s titanic Art of Fugue in public. Those rising stars of British classical music, the Elias Quartet, proved again to be one of our most popular ensembles; Germany’s Morgenstern Trio made beautiful music with Australian violist Christopher Moore; and Jian Wang joined Sydney pianist Bernadette Harvey to revisit their striking musical partnership from the 2006 Huntington Estate Musical Festival.

Our Coffee Concert series continued to excite those dedicated Tuesday morning audiences, nearing capacity in Sydney and continuing to grow steadily in the spacious, acoustically luminous venue of the Melbourne Recital Centre. The 2013 Huntington Festival was an unforgettable collection of performances featuring British pianist Freddy Kempf, the Doric String Quartet (also from Britain), Australian tenor Andrew Goodwin, masterful Spanish oboist Ramon Ortega Quero, and a dazzling array of fine Australian musicians.

2013 also heralded the third Musica Viva Festival, starring incredible musicians such as Lambert Orkis, Pieter Wispelwey, Hector McDonald, Sharon Bezaly and the Pacifica Quartet, together with new discovery, the master violinist Benjamin Beilman, plus a cavalcade of Australia’s finest musicians. As usual the festival was packed around masterclasses and concerts by the young Chamber Players of the Australian Youth Orchestra, working closely with senior festival artists to cover the full gamut of the chamber music experience.

I tire of the canard, often repeated by chroniclers too lazy to think for themselves, that classical music is dying. The market is without doubt changing, and its protagonists need to remain alert, responsive and energised. But as long as the human spirit survives, classical music will flourish.

Mission and Vision

COMPANY OVERVIEW
We see a future for Australia in a world shaped by creativity and imagination, in which music plays an essential inspirational role.

MISSION
Musica Viva seeks to inspire through ensemble music of quality, diversity, challenge and joy.

VISION
We work to be the leading organisation in the world for connecting audiences and ensemble music, inspiring personal fulfilment and cultural vibrancy.

Musica Viva brings together the finest performers in classical, jazz, world, folk and a capella music in order to bring the experience of live music to audiences of all ages. We believe that the performance, study, and enjoyment of ensemble music:

• enriches people’s lives in a unique and powerful way
• contributes to a vibrant cultural life in Australia
• creates positive perceptions of Australian culture both domestically and internationally, and
• contributes to understanding and co-operation across various cultures, communities and generations.

Today Musica Viva is the largest presenter of chamber music in the world, with offices in every Australian state and territory, reaching approximately 348,000 people directly every year. In coming years, Musica Viva plans to be at the forefront of digital delivery of music education and ensemble music experiences, and synonymous with the highest quality live ensemble music performances in Australia.
IN 2013, MUSICA VIVA AUSTRALIA PERFORMED 2,004 CONCERTS FOR 348,224 PEOPLE, INCLUDING 1,636 CONCERTS FOR 272,677 STUDENTS ACROSS AUSTRALIA.
Musica Viva began in 1945 as a chamber music organisation focused on one ensemble. Over the years, the organisation has evolved to embrace hundreds of different musicians and ensembles each year, bringing the finest groups from overseas to perform and teach across Australia, and promoting Australian ensembles to audiences nationally and internationally. To enhance these performances and deepen audience engagement, Musica Viva has developed world-leading programs that contextualize concerts and an innovative education program that enables better music learning in classrooms.

INTERNATIONAL CONCERT SEASON
Embodying Musica Viva’s tenets of quality, diversity, challenge and joy, the 2013 International Concert Season featured a superb array of artists and music from a variety of genres, styles and periods bringing unique musical enrichment to more than 40,000 people across Australia.

“I will never forget this concert: just unbelievable music-making at the very highest possible levels.”
Stewart Smith, Artistic Review Panel (WA) on the Academy of Ancient Music & Sara Macliver concert

To open the season, two of the world’s most charismatic guitarists Karin Schaupp and Pavel Steidl created a captivating concert of their favourite pieces and stories, enhanced by projected close-up images of their performances.

“It was a very heart warming and brilliant concert.”
Elizabeth Koch OAM, Artistic Review Panel (SA)

The dynamic combination of the Morgenstern Trio and violist Christopher Moore brought alive Romantic masterpieces.

Stephen Emmerson, Artistic Review Panel (QLD)

The Tokyo String Quartet’s final Australian tour featured vintage performances of some of their most loved works, including Beethoven and Schubert.

“Their musicality and finesse was of the highest order and could scarcely be faulted.”
Matthew O’Keefe, Artistic Review Panel (VIC)

Chinese master cellist Jian Wang joined with Australia’s Bernadette Harvey, piano for beautifully realised performances of majestic Brahms and compelling Schnittke.

“It was an excellent program, masterfully executed.”
Dianna Nixon, Artistic Review Panel (ACT)

The Elias String Quartet’s second Australian tour confirmed their status as one of the world’s leading ‘next generation’ ensembles.

“One of Musica Viva’s great talents is to spot these “up and comings” and give Australian audiences the chance to judge for themselves.”
Clive Paget, Limelight Magazine

Angela Hewitt confirmed her status as the world’s leading interpreter of J S Bach on the piano with definitive performances of the composer’s most remarkable music, The Art of Fugue.

“This has been one of the highlights of my arts year.”
Esther Anatolitis, Artistic Review Panel (VIC)

The season closed with original and theatrical music-making of the highest order by the renowned Academy of Ancient Music in partnership with the magnificent soprano voice of Sara Macliver.

“This was a most enjoyable and engrossing performance throughout.”
Geoff Collins, Artistic Review Panel (SA)

COFFEE CONCERTS
Matinee audiences in Sydney and Melbourne were well-served in every sense, with morning tea and a wide range of talented musicians in 2013 across the ten Tuesday Coffee Concerts.

The Choir of Trinity College, Melbourne, thrilled both cities’ audiences while the other eight concerts featured a diverse range of artists. Sydney’s patrons were treated to the delights of Karak Percussion, pianist Lisa Moore, Emma Sholl and Clemens Leske on flute and piano and rising stars the Enigma Quartet while the Melbourne audience heard the Seven Harp Ensemble (SHE), Wilma & Friends (Wilma Smith, Caroline Henbest & Michelle Wood), cellist Li-Wei Qin and pianist Kristian Chong and the Streeton Trio.

MUSICA VIVA FESTIVAL
The third Musica Viva Festival was once again a superb opportunity for audiences to connect with chamber music in all its forms and richness. A cavalcade of the world’s finest musicians joined with 22 Australian musicians in seven concerts of wide-ranging programs and varying ensemble combinations. Featured artists included Lambert Orkis, Pieter Wispelwey, Hector McDonald and Sharon Bezaly, rising stars Benjamin Beilman and the Pacifica Quartet and the Goldner String Quartet, Ian Munro, Alice Giles, Sophie Rowell, Sally Boud and Neal Peres Da Costa. Musical highlights included the Brahms Piano Quartet no 1, Shostakovich’s String Quartet nos 2 & 3, the Mendelssohn Piano Trio no 1, Dohnányi’s Sextet and Schoenberg’s arrangement of Mahler’s Songs of a Wayfarer.

“The final work was Mendelssohn’s irrepresible octet, featuring the two string quartets the Goldners and Pacifica…. this half-hour of joyful music set the seal on another first-class festival.”
Steve Moffatt, News Limited Media

The next generation of Australian chamber musicians was also given opportunities to perform and interact with the Festival audience, in the AYO Chamber Players masterclasses and concerts (featuring nine ensembles including a wind quintet for the first time) and The Con Showcase concerts. Musica Viva is grateful for the support of the Festival presenting partners, the Australian Youth Orchestra and the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and the commitment and energy of their students.

More than either of its predecessors, the 2013 Festival was shaped to ensure that every activity provided opportunities for audiences to deeply immerse themselves in the chamber music experience and repertoire. The Violin Treasures of Cremona Showcase, Ironwood’s A Different Kind of Brahms lecture/performance, guided tours of the historic Sydney Conservatorium building and Try a Cello hosted by ABC Classic FM’s Emma Ayres combined with artist conversations, live broadcasts of ABC Classic FM Breakfast and Radio National’s The Music Show and other events created an informal and joyous environment.

“Thanks to all the team at Musica Viva for such an inspiring and happy experience that was the Musica Viva Festival. It was fabulous to hear the NSW Governor announce another festival for 2015, due to the generosity of the Berg Foundation. I shall be there.”
NSW audience member

“The presentation and performance of this concert was of extremely good quality.”
Elaine Armstrong, Artistic Review Panel (VIC) on the Seven Harp Ensemble (SHE) concert

“COMPELLING PERFORMANCES & PROGRAMS”
HUNTINGTON ESTATE MUSIC FESTIVAL

“One of the country’s most iconic venues for chamber music with its imposing oak drums of fermenting wine looming high above the Steinway grand centre stage.”

Clive Paget, Limelight Magazine

The 2013 Festival was a delightful combination of great music-making and joyous camaraderie between performers and audiences.

Most of the 24 artists had not met before arriving in Mudgee, yet within hours it was clear that very special musical connections had been made. The UK’s Doric String Quartet and pianist Freddy Kempf, Ramon Ortega Quero from Spain and Australian expatriate Andrew Goodwin formed dynamic partnerships with many fine local musicians including Daniel de Borah, Jessica and Tim Buzbee and Paul Wright to perform a vast array of chamber works including two world premieres. It was the most diverse Festival program yet under Musica Viva’s direction and the audience responded with delight and surprise.

Complementary to the Festival program, Emma Sholl and Paul Dean mentored the Wind Ensemble of Mudgee High School leading to a showcase performance at the Festival.
AUSTRALIAN COMPOSERS
Musica Viva’s International Concert Season featured three landmark Australian chamber works and the exciting premiere of a major new string quartet.

- Peter Sculthorpe – the Tokyo String Quartet performed the composer’s powerful String Quartet no 16, inspired by the plight of refugees and the work’s commissioner Julian Burnside AO QC.
- Ross Edwards – his Piano Trio was brought to sparkling life by the Morgenstern Trio.
- Carl Vine – Bernadette Harvey performed his brilliant Piano Sonata no 1.
- Matthew Hindson – the Elias String Quartet thrilled audiences nationally with the debut performances of his String Quartet no 3, also commissioned by Julian Burnside AO QC. The work is the composer’s response to and celebration of the nature of scientific discovery.

“The still, quiet, central section is handled with masterful control and concentration, conjuring up the vastness of space itself. This is music of compelling, heartbreaking beauty.”
Clive Paget on Matthew Hindson’s work, Limelight Magazine

“Julian Burnside does it again in showing the vision of supporting established composers in the creation of new works. How lucky are we.”
Anthony Maydwell, Artistic Review Panel (WA)

Three other new works were also premiered in 2013:
- Gordon Kerry – Hoang Pham, Sophie Rowell, Elizabeth Sellars, Sally Boud & Rachel Johnston performed the composer’s Piano Quintet, “Aroona Dawning”, commissioned by Denise and John Elkins, at the Huntington Estate Music Festival.
- Ian Munro – Piano Trio, “Book of Lullabies” was also performed by the composer and Dimity Hall and Julian Smiles at the Huntington Estate Music Festival. The work was commissioned by John & Jo Strutt.
- Lachlan Skipworth – the Enigma Quartet performed his String Quartet no 1, yamagoe in the Sydney Coffee Concerts series. The work was commissioned by the Silo Collective.

Other Australian works featured in 2013 included works for solo and seven harps by Jim Cotter, Mary Doumany, Alice Giles, Joshua McHugh, Larry Sitsky and Martin Wesley-Smith, choral works by Colin Brumby, Michael Leighton Jones and Nigel Westlake and works for percussion by Kerryn Joyce, Kevin Man and David Pye.

RISING STARS & MASTERCLASS PROGRAM

The Orava String Quartet was the winner of the Musica Viva Tony Berg Award for the Most Outstanding Australian Ensemble at the 2013 Asia-Pacific Chamber Music Competition. Musica Viva’s close association with the group over its development played an integral role in its success in the competition. The group used the funds for their second year of study with the Takács Quartet, an opportunity which came about for the young group through the senior group working with them at the 2011 Musica Viva Festival. Musica Viva will further assist the group’s career development through mentoring, concert and other opportunities in 2014-15.

The Morinda Trio was the winner of the 2013 Sydney Eisteddfod Musica Viva Chamber Music Award, supported by The John Lamble Foundation. Members of the group performed as featured artists in a lunchtime concert partnership with St James Church, Sydney, alongside other Award ensembles and the Enigma and Sydney Camerata Quartets.

Building upon the 2012 funding from the Australia Council and private supporters for the Rising Stars program, the three featured ensembles showcased the development of their skills in a variety of settings. The Streeton Trio and Enigma Quartet performed to great acclaim in the 2013 Coffee Concerts series and also presented pop up performances at Melbourne’s Ruby’s Music Room and Sydney’s 107 Projects.

NURTURING & PROMOTING AUSTRALIAN MUSIC & MUSICIANS

A unique project between Musica Viva and poetry organisation The Red Room Company commenced in 2013, supported by the Australia Council. Exciting emerging composer Melody Eötvös, leading solo instrumentalist Claire Edwardes and three renowned poets at different career points – Luka Lesson, Margaret West and Jessica Wilkinson – are working in a collaborative process to create an innovative work that marries the complementary artforms of music and poetry. A successful workshop was held in late 2013 and there will be further workshops and performance, publication and education outcomes in 2014-15.

The number of tertiary and secondary school students offered the opportunity to work with touring artists in masterclass settings increased further in 2013, through the continued generosity of Andy Serafin in memory of Graham Hall. Over 20 masterclasses were held nationally, including special events with Angela Hewitt at the Theme & Variations showrooms in Brisbane and Sydney.
Musica Viva continued to develop a number of activities and associations to increase people’s interest in and engagement with chamber music in 2013.

By working with ABC Classic FM, National Media Partner, on concert recordings and broadcasts Musica Viva’s Concerts activity reaches hundreds of thousands of people across Australia and internationally, as well as allowing patrons who attend the concerts the opportunity to listen again. A special highlight was the network’s coverage of the Musica Viva Festival, with six direct broadcasts, a dedicated website and the special digital radio station “Musica Viva Festival on ABC Extra”.

Audiences at other International Concert Season concerts across the year also enjoyed short performances by young musicians, including the Jani Haenke String Quartet Competition (Queensland Conservatorium, Griffith University), students from Barker College (Sydney) and the ANU School of Music Pre-Tertiary program in Canberra. Try an Instrument demonstrations were held in a number of the foyers and successful Meet the Artists sessions were held nationally.

Two innovative audience engagement programs were trialed in 2013, the Late Night Library series in partnership with the City of Sydney and the Random Acts of Music pop up performances in partnership with the City of Hobsons Bay, Melbourne. Following successful trials, the programs are being repeated in 2014.

“Musica Viva appears to be doing it’s very best to make high quality chamber music available and relevant to all kinds of members of the community…”
Geoff Collins, Artistic Review Panel (SA)

PRESENTING PARTNERSHIPS
Central to Musica Viva’s mission to be a leader in connecting audiences with chamber music are the presenting partnerships that help us to reach ever-growing audiences and extend the reach of tours. Partners in 2013 were:

- Adelaide Festival
- State Opera of South Australia
- Centenary of Canberra
- Perth Concert Hall
- Perth International Festival of the Arts
- West Australian Opera
- Chamber Music New Zealand

Programs: CountryWide

Since its formation in 1945 Musica Viva has delivered quality music to regional and remote areas around the country, ensuring all music lovers have the chance to experience quality live music performances no matter where they live.

In 2013 Musica Viva toured 28 soloists and ensembles to 33 regional centres, presenting 113 concerts and workshops to regional Australian communities. Concerts were performed at large and small festivals, indoors and outdoors, for large audiences and in more intimate settings, and at performing arts centres, churches, town halls and schools.

A vast range of music was performed including opera, chamber music, early music, jazz and crossover music from some of Australia’s leading musicians and from selected artists from the International Concert Series. Many of these concerts were performed alongside workshops or masterclasses thus deepening the engagement and exchange between visiting artists and local musicians.

Highlights of the 2013 program included Anna Goldsworthy’s unique Piano Lessons recital featuring readings of her acclaimed book alongside performances of key pieces from her musical life; young Berlin-based Australian group Streeton Trio dazzling audiences with their dynamism, maturity and commitment; and New Orleans jazz group and popular Musica Viva In Schools ensemble The Sousaphonics delighting audiences throughout Victoria and NSW with their outstanding playing, light-hearted presence on stage and broad appeal; indicate the breadth and depth of the music toured through CountryWide.

“This was a very engaging and unusual performance, taking the audience on a real journey. The musical performances were of the highest quality, as were the dramatic readings from Anna’s book...The dramatic/theatrical quality of the performance had a clear impact on the audience”

Macquarie Conservatorium, Dubbo on Anna Goldsworthy’s Piano Lessons recital

“The response from the audience was that this concert was of an outstanding quality. Several school age students attended after experiencing a rather unique and informative workshop with the group prior to the concert. These students have been inspired by these artists to pursue other varieties of music that they would not ordinarily have the opportunity to play.”

Short Black Opera residency
SHORT BLACK OPERA RESIDENCIES
In 2013 Musica Viva extended its relationship with outstanding Aboriginal opera singer, educator and composer Deborah Cheetham and her company, Short Black Opera. Cheetham and company members undertook three week-long residencies in Wangaratta, Gunnedah and Grafton.

Each residency comprised of a recital of Cheetham’s autobiographical show Til the Black Lady Sings in Company, a choral workshop open to all local singers, a school-based intensive training program for indigenous students in years 4-6; and a session with Year 10 students about the creation of Cheetham’s opera Pecan Summer highlighting themes such as the Stolen Generation, the Rudd Apology and reconciliation. The residency week concludes with a performance by the young training program participants for family, friends and the local community.

As well as being a powerful experience for participants and audience members during the residency itself, relationships between the young students and Cheetham’s company were nurtured through further opportunities to perform. In August selected participants from residency programs around the country came together to perform in Melbourne with the African Children’s Choir.

“We had an exceptional crowd. All comments were positive with regard to the singing, song choice and musical excellence but especially with regard to Deborah’s story. A few people were touched to tears and I think her message was heard and taken to heart by a group of people who would not otherwise engage with Aboriginal issues.”

MUSICA VIVA EXPORT
Following an announcement by the Australian Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) of a review into its cultural diplomacy touring programs, the Fine Music Touring Program, which Musica Viva managed for over 40 years finished in 2013. In this final year Musica Viva partnered with Australian High Commissions and Embassies to tour a wide range of world-class Australian ensembles to Asia; from contemporary string quartet Zephyr Quartet, whose tour included a collaboration with Filipino grunge band Razorback; to folk-jazz trio Elixir, led by songstress Katie Noonan; to acclaimed jazz ensemble The World According to James. These musicians showcased the vibrancy and diversity of Australian music and also shared skills with local musicians and students through workshops and school concerts.

Musica Viva also explored innovative means of touring in Asia through collaborating with Shanghai-based Australian producer Reckless Moments to create and present a brand new ensemble Typhoon台风. Typhoon台风 is a truly cross-cultural ensemble comprised of five leading Australian and Chinese artists; renowned contemporary pianist-composer Michael Kieran Harvey; Brian Ritchie, shakuhachi master, bass player for the Violent Femmes and curator of MONA FOMA in Hobart; concert pipa player Xie Yu Dan; composer and erhu player Ma Jia Jun; and award-winning animator Zen Yi Gang. The concerts include both classical and contemporary compositions with arrangements for solos, duets, trios and quartets. Each concert concludes with the screening of a short hand-drawn animation by Zeng Yi Gang, to which the members of Typhoon台风 improvise a new live score. The group’s premiere tour of China garnered significant interest from presenters in Australia and internationally, and Reckless Moments will explore future touring opportunities that arise.

“A really mesmerizing performance... we believe Typhoon台风 has been successful in promoting a contemporary and creative image of Australia – one of our key cultural diplomacy objectives”

Hayley May Ward,
Senior Cultural Relations Officer,
Australian Embassy Beijing

Musica Viva thanks all the artists, presenters, producers and DFAT staff who have contributed to this vital international touring program, and looks forward to working with DFAT in the next iteration of music touring.

MUSICA VIVA IN SCHOOLS (MVIS)
2013 has been a year of challenge and innovation for Musica Viva In Schools. MVIS has been unwavering in its mission to give access to quality music education to all Australian children and teachers. Whether this is through live performances, digital resources or teacher training, MVIS has consistently delivered music of quality, diversity, challenge and joy.

Live Performance Plus (LPP), continues to be Musica Viva’s core program for students from Foundation to Year 8. Some 890 schools across Australia experienced 1,636 live performances presented by one of 26 MVIS ensembles. These specially trained musicians and educators present the most musically diverse education program in Australia, inspiring over 247,000 students and 9,955 teachers through repertoire including jazz, popular, world and contemporary Australian art music. The LPP encourages students and teachers to become life-long learners, engaging with music on a cultural, social, emotional as well as educational level.

“Your concerts are an important part of our students’ learning and to have the opportunity to hear music performed live is vital to the development of our musicians. Thank you!”
Teacher, NT

2013 was a stand-out year for MVIS innovation. The LPP program in NSW, QLD and SA was revolutionised with the arrival of online professional development for teachers. This involved musicians and expert educators joining forces to deliver performance and instructional videos that support teachers to learn about the music and how to teach the music. Digital seminars were streamed across the country allowing teachers from as far as Baradine (NSW) and Cairns (QLD) to watch live feeds and ask questions directly of Musica Viva educators and musicians using social media, email and phone. The ongoing development of MVIS’ digital capacity continues to prove that learning can happen anytime and anywhere.

“I found the flexibility in the delivery of this course absolutely fantastic. Being accessible at any time, I chose to complete this course during the school holidays, away from the pressures of day-to-day teaching. This meant that I was able to focus on the course in much greater detail, and also start/stop/revise any sections as needed. This flexibility meant that I was able to take-in much more detail from this course, as opposed to hurriedly taking notes at a live course (and still missing some information). I hope to study more courses like this in the future. Great work Musica Viva!”
Teacher, NSW
Digital and artistic innovation was powerfully apparent with the 2013 launch of MVIS new ensemble ‘Datiwuy Dreaming’. The pilot 2 week tour in Central Coast, NSW followed by the official launch and 3 week tour in Perth and regional WA was the culmination of 3 years of artistic and educational collaboration between NAISDA Dance College, members of the Datiwuy clan group from Elcho Island and Musica Viva. It was made possible through the generous support of Rio Tinto and OFTA. The importance of this initiative rests not only in the value to Australian music education, but also gives emerging Aboriginal artists sustainable performing opportunities as well as playing a role in preserving the cultural heritage of the Yolngu clan. Every aspect of this program was met with acclaim; from the professional development for participating teachers, to the comprehensive digital resources, to the moving performance that interwove storytelling, dance, music and song into a narrative that resonated with all Australian audiences whether they be in remote Meekatharra, WA or Wyee, NSW.

“It is an authentic perspective of Yolngu culture through the eyes of a Yolngu family. It is charming, informative, funny and poignant, educational and so relevant in todays world… The partnership has been an excellent collaboration that has brought both organisations’ (Musica Viva and NAISDA) expertise together to create Datiwuy. It would not have been possible by one alone… For myself and NAISDA it is such an amazing opportunity for us as a cultural institute and passionate artists to be able to create Datiwuy with and for Heather and Tony (Elders and performers from Elcho Island) and family.”

Kim Walker, Executive Director of NAISDA

Programs: Education

MUSICASESSSIALS
In August 2013 Musica Viva’s new digital resources for the classroom were launched around the country. The initial suite of 12 modules are essentially toolboxes that teachers can use to effectively teach a rich and rigorous music program in their schools, regardless of location or access to live music. Teachers of varying confidence in music skills are supported with sequential, stage specific lessons that integrate video, audio, interactive activities with teacher notes and Australian and state specific curricula links. Live musicians and expert music educators are introduced into the classroom via digital resources that can be accessed by individuals or groups of students, allowing teachers to better differentiate learning needs and assessment outcomes. Musicassentials is a bold response to meeting the inequity of music education across Australian schools and has been made possible through the support of DEEWR, Rio Tinto, Vincent Fairfax Family Foundation and Australia Council.

“It’s a great way to introduce music literacy for those students who don’t play instruments. I personally feel there could never be too much of this way of learning.”
Teacher, NSW
RESIDENCY PROGRAMS
Musica Viva residency programs have continued to grow from strength to strength in 2013. A wide range of schools across the country have been working with Musica Viva to specifically design programs that have musical skill outcomes, and also focus on developing cultural, social and emotional well-being. The transformative nature of quality music education is extraordinary, especially when delivered with exceptional expertise, support from the community and designed for specific student and teacher needs. Such was the case for Mt Isa School of the Air, where MVIS artist Nicole Murphy spent 6 weeks camping in tents in remote areas of Normanton, Bedourie, Cloncurry, Camooweal, Gregory and Julia Creek to deliver music programs to children attending ‘minischools’.

MVIS residencies at Furlong School for the Deaf and Rosamund School in Victoria continued in 2013 with students demonstrating the stunning progress they have made with a moving performance at the opening of the new facilities in December.

JUVENILE JUSTICE PROGRAM
With the help of Coca-Cola Australia Foundation MVIS piloted a special music residency program in The Frank Baxter Juvenile Justice Centre in partnership with accomplished songwriter/producer duo The Banton Brothers. A five-week program of mentoring sessions culminated in the creation of a touching, positive and heartfelt hip hop song entitled “Standing on the Edge of Greatness” which was performed by the students in front of their peers.

This targeted music program was not designed as a bid to produce the next big rock star, but to reach out to youth in trouble, transforming the substantial negative aspects and expression of their lives and encouraging them to believe that they have the power to create a positive future beyond their troubled pasts and their time in detention.

According to John Hibbard, National Manager of Teaching and Learning, an aim of the program was to create a “deep thread of personal renewal and transformation through music” in an environment of positive reinforcement for individuals who for many reasons may not have been afforded positive male role models and experiences in their lives so far.

“We consider our music program to be of great importance, both in helping students engage at school, and in raising the profile of the school. Anything that can be offered to the students to aid this is vital. Many of our students are indigenous, many travel large distances to attend school. Music is able to cut through the barriers of perceived academic ability, and engages students indifferent ways.”

Sasha Andersson, Music Teacher, Leigh Creek Area School

CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Corporate partners are much valued members of the Musica Viva family; tangible demonstration of how corporate and arts sectors work together positively to nurture creativity and innovation, to increase access and open doors to wider engagement with quality music making and music education across the nation. We work with each of our partners to achieve strong alignment and outcomes with a ripple effect.

Our public concert activities are supported by longstanding partnerships with Wesfarmers Arts, Foxtel, Bang & Olufsen, Huntington Estate Wines, Theme & Variations, ABC Classic FM, Baker & McKenzie, Thomas Davis & Co, Pan Pacific Perth, Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney, Stamford Plaza Brisbane, Rendezvous Hotel Adelaide, Hyatt Hotel Canberra and The Langham Melbourne.

In 2013, we welcomed Dixon Advisory as a new partner and supporter of our Coffee Concerts Series in Sydney and Melbourne. We thank Apache Energy as our Tour Partner for the Tokyo String Quartet tour.

In addition, we welcomed Laithwaites Wine People as our National Wine Partner and our state wine partners Deep Woods Estate and Millbrook Winery in Western Australia and Box Stallion Wines in Victoria. Kailis Australian Pearls has added extra panache as our costume partner.

The success of the 2013 Musica Viva Festival would not have been possible without partners Australian Youth Orchestra, Sydney Conservatorium of Music, Bang & Olufsen, Mastercard Priceless Sydney, Theme & Variations Piano Services, Radisson Blu, Wilson Parking and Huntington Estate Wines.

As Musica Viva’s National Education Partner, Rio Tinto’s support underpins innovation and development in our education activities, with highlights in 2013 including the launch of the indigenous ensemble Datiwuy Dreaming and the Musicassentials digital resources. Fremantle Ports and the Albany Port Authority very generously supported our Equal Music program to disadvantaged schools in the Fremantle and Albany areas of WA.

The Anatomy of Music program in Sydney and Brisbane continued to benefit from the technical support and expertise of Electroboard/Polycom. We thank ABC Classic FM and APRA/AMCOS for their continued and ongoing support.

Musica Viva is most grateful to its corporate partners; to those who have supported us for many years, and also to our new partners, we say thank you.

PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORT
Ongoing Commitment
Musica Viva could not exist without the ongoing support we receive from our dedicated donors, the Viva Virtuosi. Their generosity helps Musica Viva sustain its concerts and outreach activities in every state and territory in Australia.

Extraordinary Support
Major Gifts make a major difference, enabling Musica Viva to accelerate its reach and impact.

Musica Viva would like to acknowledge the esteemed group of individuals who comprise the Amadeus Society for their help in building an Artistic Initiatives Fund for the extraordinary artistic initiatives of Musica Viva. In particular, we extend our thanks to Ruth Magid, Chair of the Sydney Amadeus Society, and Julian Burnside AO QC, President of the Melbourne Amadeus Society.

Musica Viva also wishes to thank the patrons who support our Equal Music program. Their generosity ensures that the most disadvantaged schools in their state can continue to access our music education programs.

Commissioning new work can only happen with the support of generous individuals. Musica Viva was fortunate to commission four Australian composers in 2013 thanks to this visionary support.

The Musica Viva Festival is built on the support of the Berg Family Foundation, and flourishes with the support of many generous donors.

Inspiring legacies
Musica Viva wishes to pay special tribute to our custodians whose legacies will make a lasting contribution to Australia’s artistic vibrancy, enabling us to bring the inspiration of live music performance to schools and stages across the country.

GOVERNMENT PARTNERSHIPS

Government support is integral to Musica Viva’s capacity to deliver a range of programs across its concert and education portfolios. In 2013, Government funding comprised 24% of Musica Viva’s revenue across the country. As a Major Performing Arts Company, Musica Viva’s major source of funding flows from the Australia Council for the Arts and Arts NSW through a triennial funding arrangement. This support is critical to the ongoing operations of Musica Viva.

Musica Viva’s government partners in 2013 included:

Federal
- Australia Council for The Arts
- Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations
- Office For The Arts
- Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

State
- Arts NSW
- NSW Department of Education and Communities
- NSW Department of Ageing, Disability and Home Care (NSW Senior’s Week Grant)
- Arts Victoria
- Vic Department of Education and Early Childhood Development
- Carclew Youth Arts
- SA Department of Education and Child Development
- WA Department of Culture and the Arts
- WA Department of Education
- Healthway
- NT Department of Education and Children’s Services
- ACT Directorate of Education and Training
- Tasmanian Department of Education
- City of Sydney
- Cairns Regional Council

State Government Arts and Education agencies support Musica Viva’s core program in most states, most commonly as a source of funding for the Musica Viva In Schools program. Additional to core program offerings, Musica Viva was able to conduct the following programs with state and federal government support in 2013:

- The final year creative development and presentation of Musica Viva’s new Aboriginal ensemble Datiwuy Dreaming was made possible thanks to an Indigenous Culture Support grant from the Office For The Arts and National Education Partner Rio Tinto.
- Musica Viva’s new stand-alone digital resources Musicassentials were completed and introduced to the market thanks to the support of the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations, along with private and trust and foundation supporters.
- In 2013, the Australia Council for the Arts funded several special projects in NSW, including the David Paul Landa Memorial Scholarship for pianist Young Kwon Choi, a year-long artist-in-residence program at Villawood North Public School, and the Anatomy of Music interactive videoconferencing workshop in Sydney along with a week-long song writing residency at Hay War Memorial High School in the state’s south-west.

Further, Arts NSW supported several projects in NSW, including the David Paul Landa Memorial Scholarship for pianist Young Kwon Choi, a year-long artist-in-residence program at Villawood North Public School, and the Anatomy of Music interactive videoconferencing workshop in Sydney along with a week-long song writing residency at Hay War Memorial High School in the state’s south-west.

Musica Viva’s government partners in 2013 included:

TRUSTS AND FOUNDATIONS
Thanks to the support of trusts and foundations, Musica Viva conducts a range of new projects, trials innovative ideas and provides much needed support to its core programs, in both its concerts and education operations.

In 2013, trust and foundation support allowed Musica Viva to deliver a number of exciting projects including:

- the very successful pilot Juvenile Justice project held in May 2013 at Frank Baxter Juvenile Justice Centre in NSW, supported by the Coca-Cola Australia Foundation;
- a music residency at Furlong Park School for Deaf Students in Victoria which has been in operation for four years, supported by the Marian & E.H. Flack Trust;
- a Musician In The Classroom tour to the remote South Australian towns of Coober Pedy and Leigh Creek, supported by the Thyne Reid Foundation;
- inroads into digital innovation, through a grant to support the development of Musica Viva’s new Musicaessentials and funding to distribute these modules to schools in regional and remote NSW, thanks to the Vincent Fairfax Family Foundation.

Musica Viva has enjoyed the support of some of its trusts and foundations for a number of years, allowing us to increase our capacity to deliver quality music education to Australian students and to provide innovative concert programs. Musica Viva values its partnerships with trusts and foundations and we thank the following for their commitment to our programs:

- Allport Bequest

STATEMENTS OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of Musica Viva Australia for the year ended 31 December 2013 were authorised for issue by a resolution of the Directors on 28 March 2014.

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the Corporations Act 2001.

Musica Viva Australia is a company limited by guarantee, incorporated and domiciled in Australia. It operates as a non-profit organisation.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and are based on historical costs and do not take into account changing money values or, except where stated, current valuations of non-current assets. Cost is based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets.

The following is a summary of the material accounting policies adopted by Musica Viva Australia in the preparation of the financial statements. The accounting policies have been consistently applied, unless otherwise stated.

Significant accounting methods applied are as follows:

(i) Income and expenses are brought to account generally as earned and incurred.

(ii) Land and Buildings are shown at independent valuation at 30 July 2009 less depreciation on building since that date. Other fixed assets are shown at cost less depreciation. Depreciation of the Building in which Musica Viva holds a 75% share has been included in property costs which are netted against property rental income.

(iii) Depreciation is calculated to expense the cost over the estimated useful life of the respective fixed asset. The rates of depreciation are 2.5% per annum on cost of Buildings, 33.3% per annum on the cost of Computer Software, and 20% per annum on the cost of other fixed assets.

(iv) Foreign exchange profits in 2013 amounting to $6,812, (2012 – $1,853 loss) representing the revaluation of the US Dollar cash at bank as at the reporting date has been credited to Administration and general expenses in the Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income.

(v) Segment accounting – Musica Viva Australia’s activities which comprise concert organisation and promotion and music education are carried on predominantly within Australia.

(vi) During 2013, Musica Viva provided $nil grants to the Australian Music Foundation (2012 - $nil). The Australian Music Foundation provided a grant to Musica Viva Australia of $8,000 (2012 - $50,000) for its operational activities.

(vii) Musica Viva Australia is a non-profit organisation and no tax is payable on the surplus from its operations. Correspondingly no tax benefit accrues from losses and is therefore not recognised in the accounts.

(viii) Limitation of Members’ Liability.

In accordance with the Memorandum of Association the liability of members in the event of Musica Viva Australia being wound up would not exceed $1.00 per member.

(ix) The Number of Employees as at the balance sheet date was 60 (2012 – 57).

(x) Payables.

Trade creditors represents liabilities for goods and services provided to Musica Viva Australia prior to the end of the financial year which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days of recognition.

(xi) Receivables.

The terms of trade are 7 days from date of invoice. Collectability of debtors is reviewed on an ongoing basis. A provision for doubtful debts is raised where doubt as to collection exists and debts which are known to be uncollectable are written off. The Company has no significant concentrations of credit risk.

The net fair value of cash and cash equivalents and non-interest bearing monetary financial assets and financial liabilities represent their carrying value. Interest received on funds in bank accounts and on deposit is at current market value. Musica Viva Australia is subject to market changes in respect of its cash on deposits and its financial assets.

(xiii) Comparative Figures.

Where required by Accounting Standards comparative figures have been adjusted to conform with changes in presentation for the current financial year.

(xiv) Musica Viva Australia receives financial support from a number of government agencies at the local, state, territory and federal levels. All funding is expended in accordance with the requirements of the relevant funding agreements.

(xv) Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements.

The directors evaluate estimates and judgements incorporated into the financial statements based on historical knowledge and best available current information. Estimates assume a reasonable expectation of future events and are based on current trends and economic data, obtained both externally and within the company.

Key Estimates

The freehold land and buildings were independently valued at 30 July 2009 by Cushman & Wakefield (NSW) Pty Limited. The valuation was based on the fair value. The critical assumptions adopted in determining the valuation included the location of the land and buildings, the current demand for land and buildings in the area and recent sales data for similar properties. The valuation resulted in a revaluation increment of $569,982 being recognised for the year ended 31 December 2009.

Key Judgments – Available-for-sale investments.

The company maintains a portfolio of securities with a market carrying value of $575,631 at the end of the reporting period. The value of these investments has and will change in line with equity market movements given the nature of the investments but has not changed materially since the reporting date.

(xvi) Adoption of New and Revised Accounting Standards.

During the year the company adopted all of the new and revised Australian Accounting Standards in application of these standards as none are expected to materially affect the company.

(xvii) New Accounting Standards for Application in Future Periods.

The AASB has issued new and revised Accounting Standards. During the year the company adopted all of the new and revised Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations applicable to its operations which became mandatory.

(xviii) Retirement of the Company's outstanding preference shares.

In accordance with the Memorandum of Association the liability of members in the event of Musica Viva Australia being wound up would not exceed $1.00 per member.

Long Service Leave which has vested to employees who have completed the required period of service has been taken up as a current liability in 2013. Previously as the company did not expect long service leave balances to be settled within the next 12 months they were classified as non-current liabilities. However as the company does not have an unconditional right to defer the settlement of these amounts in the event employees wish to use their leave entitlement they must be classified as current liabilities. The comparatives for the prior year have been adjusted to reflect this change in accounting policy.

SYDNEY
28 March 2014
REPORT ON THE
FINANCIAL REPORT
We have audited the accompanying financial report of Musica Viva Australia, which comprises the statement of financial position as at 31 December 2013, and the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in members’ funds and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies, other explanatory information and the directors’ declaration.

DIRECTORS’ RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL REPORT
The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITOR’S RESPONSIBILITY
Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those Standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

INDEPENDENCE
In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

OPINION
In our opinion, the financial report of Musica Viva Australia is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

(a) giving a true and fair view of the company’s financial position as at 31 December 2013 and its performance for the year ended on that date; and

(b) complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001

REPORT ON OTHER
REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS
Furthermore, in our opinion:

(a) the accounts and associated records of the Company have been properly kept during that year in accordance with the New South Wales Charitable Fundraising Act 1991 and its Regulations; and

(c) money received as a result of fundraising appeals conducted during the year ended 31 December 2013 has been properly accounted for and applied in accordance with such Act and its Regulations; and

(d) the Company is solvent.

3. The principal activities of Musica Viva Australia were concert organisation and promotion and music education. The operations of Musica Viva during the financial year and the results of those operations are reviewed in the accompanying Report. These activities continue without significant change.

4. Musica Viva Australia’s short term objectives are to:
   - present compelling performances and music education programs that explore artistic energies across a broadly defined repertoire of ensemble music;
   - increase the number and diversity of audiences across all programs nationally;
   - provide the company’s paid and volunteer staff with an inspiring, supportive and socially responsible work environment;
   - ensure the company maintains a sound diversified financial base.

   Musica Viva Australia’s long term objective is to be the leading organisation in the world for inspiring audiences through ensemble music of quality, diversity, challenge and joy.

   To achieve these objectives, Musica Viva Australia adopted the following strategies in 2013:

   - ensure consistent delivery of artistically vibrant programs throughout MVA;
   - expand understanding of music via digital platforms;
   - extend strategic alliances; and
   - build financial reserves to enable bold planning for the future.
