STRIKE A CHORD

Musica Viva Australia's annual national chamber music competition for school-aged musicians. From beginners to advanced players, it's accessible, supportive and rewarding at every level.

WHO CAN ENTER?

- Full-time school students up to Year 12 (including homeschoolers)
- Groups of 3–8 players/singers (one per part, no conductor or adult accompanist)
- Any instrument or voice combination performing broadly classical music

WHY GET INVOLVED?

Foundation Section (Free Entry):

For developing groups. Submit a video performance and receive written feedback from our expert jury.

Championship Section:

For advanced groups. The top 12 ensembles from across Australia will perform live at the National Final.

Prizes & Certificates:

Cash and development prizes awarded throughout the competition; all participants receive certificates and feedback.

Free Coaching Sessions:

Regional and low-ICSEA students are prioritised for free coaching with Musica Viva Australia-affiliated artists.

Travel Support:

Subsidies available for finalists travelling to the National Final from interstate.
